Traffic Accidents Claim 2 Lives, Injure 13

Five serious traffic accidents in Crawford County killed two persons and injured 13 others over a five-day stretch from Thursday, July 3, to Monday, July 7.

The worst accident occurred Friday, July 4th, about 3:30 p.m. on M-72 West where the road meets Lake Margrethe. Two vehicles collided head-on resulting in the death of Lynette Ellis, 28, of Grayling. She was in a car driven by Steve Fick, 30, of Grayling. Fick was transported to Petoskey in critical condition. As of Monday afternoon, he was listed in serious condition in the intensive care unit at Northern Michigan Hospital.

Dustin Ellis, 19 months old, was in the same vehicle as Ellis and Fick strapped in an approved child safety seat. The infant was treated and released with a minor injury at Mercy Hospital.

Maurice Lybeer, 17, of Mt. Pleasant, was the driver of a van in the collision. Cory Bourland, 17, of Rosebush, David Mareel, 29, of St. Clair Shores, and John Tocarchick, 28, of Warren, were passengers in the van. All four were taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment.

The jaws of life were used at the accident scene by the Grayling Fire Dept. The Crawford County and Frederic Township ambulance crews were called to the scene. Sheriff deputies said none of the adults in the accidents were wearing seat belts.

Police are still investigating the cause of the accident and would not say if a driver will be cited.

On Sunday, July 6, at about 9:30 a.m.,

Stephan Ireland, 21, of Armada, was killed when his car left the road and struck some trees along County Road 612 one mile west of Frederic near the intersection of Batterson Road. The jaws of life were again used at the scene of the accident. The accident is still under investigation by sheriff deputies. Police said he was not wearing a seat belt.

On Thursday, July 3, Janice Ventline, 36, of Grayling, and Linda Sue Dellar, 36, of Grayling, were injured in a three car accident at the M-93 and Old 27 intersection. Melissa Rohde, 18, of Heren, was driving the third vehicle. She was cited for failing to yield a right of way. The accident occurred about 7:30 p.m. The two Grayling women were taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment.

On Monday, July 7, Arnold Ouwerkerk, 54, and his wife, Maxine, 54, were injured when their vehicle left I-75 Southbound near County Road 612 about 9:40 a.m. Police said Ouwerkerk apparently suffered a seizure and the car went 120 feet through trees before stopping. The Frederic ambulance crew took them to Mercy Hospital for treatment.

On Sunday, July 6, three persons were injured when a motor home driven by Barbara Podgowski, of Walton Hills, hit the rear end of a car driven by Deanne Woods, of Saginaw. The accident occurred about 3:28 p.m. along M-72 near Manistee River Road. Police said all three persons were wearing seat belts and it helped prevent more serious injuries.

Mixed doubles, mens doubles, womens doubles, and singles (divided into age divisions) are offered at the tournament running from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Winners receive trophies and championship T-shirts and all players entering the tournament for the first time will also receive Cornell Tennis Tournament T-shirts. Tennis balls used for all matches in the tournament are provided by Cornell Insurance. The entry fee is $5 for a doubles team or $5 for singles.

Entry forms are available at Cornell, the Chamber office, or the Avalanche. More entries are needed in mixed doubles, womens doubles, and boys and girls singles age division 8-12 and 13-17. The tournament offers a good opportunity for local players to meet new people to play tennis with.

RR Depot Closed By Code Complaint

The Crawford County Historical Museum was closed Wednesday, July 2nd, because of complaints it did not have proper permits needed to perform construction work inside the railroad depot.

Museum director Robert Ruddy said he and Chamber of Commerce director Terry Wright had to close the museum to protect the county from possible lawsuits that could have followed the complaints.

Building and Zoning director Bruce Jones informed Ruddy and Wright Wednesday that he had received a letter from a Grayling businessman complaining the museum did not have proper permits needed for work on the building. On July 8, Jones posted a Stop Work Order on the museum because of no building permit and the building does not meet building codes.

Later that morning on July 8th, the Crawford County Board of Commissioners voted to purchase all the necessary building permits for the Crawford County Historical Society and waive all fees for the permits.

Museum director Robert Ruddy is also working on filing necessary documents to obtain a variance from the state concerning the handicapped barrier-free codes. Ruddy said because the building is a historical site, there's a good chance a variance will be granted.

Wright said if the museum could not obtain a variance for the barrier-free codes, the museum would be forced to close permanently because the cost of making the old depot building barrier free would be prohibitive.

Commissioner Jeannette Kitchen said the county board would work toward sorting the problems out and obtaining the necessary permits to open the museum again.

"We have to get that museum open again," said Commissioner Bud Joyce. Wright said the museum will stay closed until it complies with all proper permits.

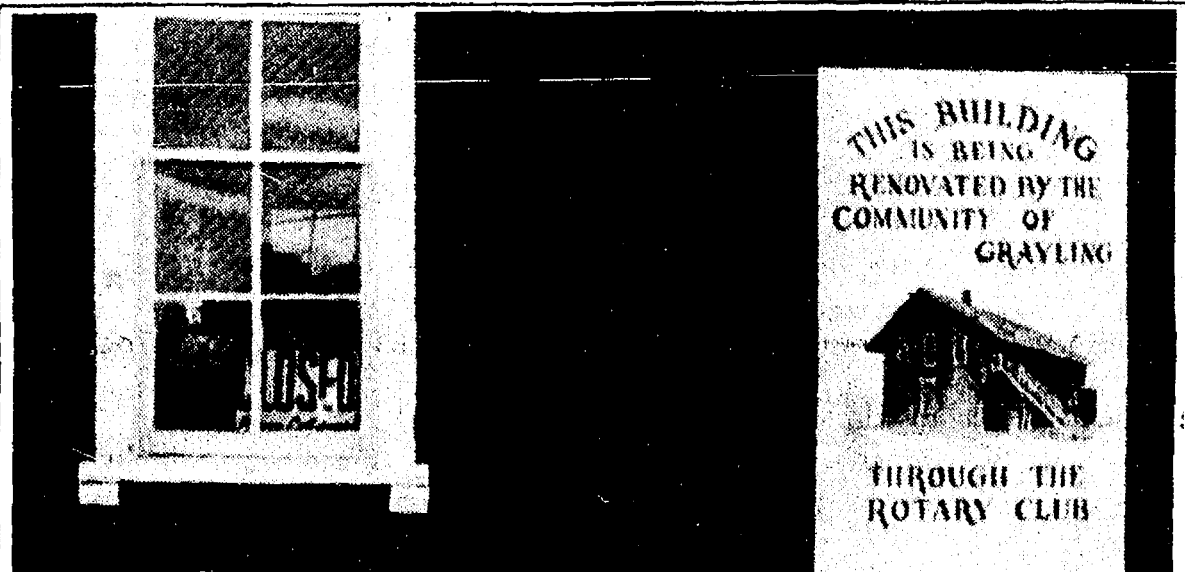

County officials could not release the letter which complained about the permit compliance. The person who wrote the letter asked that it not be released under Freedom of Information laws because it would be an invasion of his privacy.

Ruddy said the closing before the Fourth of July weekend really hurt the museum's revenues.

"We probably lost $200 in revenues and that would have gone a long way in paying some utility bills," said Ruddy.

The museum had about 1,100 visitors since it opened in May.

The International Canoe Racing Hall of Fame building next to the railroad depot also needs to comply with codes before it can open. But Wright said even if the building is not open by July 26th, the first five paddlers selected for the Hall of Fame will be inducted. The ceremonies are scheduled prior to the AuSable marathon. The location of the ceremonies will be announced later.

MUSEUM CLOSED — The sign in the window shows the Crawford County Historical Museum closed during the July 4th weekend. The museum was closed 2 p.m. Wednesday because someone complained it did not meet building codes.

Camp Grayling Receives $1.2 Million For Small Arms Ranges

Congressman Bill Schuette announced last Thursday that Camp Grayling will receive $1.2 million to improve facilities for the National Guard units there and provide 70-75 construction jobs for Crawford County.

"Camp Grayling is the second largest National Guard training camp in our country, training over 45,000 troops a year," Congressman Schuette said. "The National Guard has a central role to play in maintaining our nation's security, so it is vital that it receives the most modern and up-to-date training possible."

The $1.2 million will be used to build and install two advanced firing ranges which will train soldiers in simulated combat conditions and evaluate their performance. Construction is expected to begin in the spring.

"In addition to making needed improvements for Camp Grayling, this money will also provide 70 to 75 engineering and construction jobs," Congressman Schuette said.

The two ranges will be for small arms and will be located northwest of Howe Road at Camp Grayling.

Camp Grayling Commander Colonel Richard Schmidt said the ranges will be high technology, state-of-the-art firing ranges.

Garbage Pail Kids Campaign Shows What A Person Can Do

Who says one person in a small town can't make a difference?

Lynette Corlew, of Higgins Lake, didn't like the idea of Garbage Pail Kids cards being sold to little children so she did something about it.

She formed a group Concerned Parents Against Garbage and launched a petition drive to have the Topps Company stop printing the bubble gum cards.

Her efforts have attracted national attention.

Since a front page story in the Crawford County Avalanche on June 2nd, Corlew has appeared on the front page of the Houghton Lake Resorter, Roscommon Herald News, Bay City Times, and Detroit News. She's been on numerous radio news and talk shows in Detroit, Traverse City, and Gaylord. She has also been featured on area television channels 9 & 10 from Cadillac and channel 7 from Traverse City as well as CNN television news programs which are broadcast in all 50 states and 22 foreign countries.

"The response has been terrific," says Corlew. "I've had calls from all over the state and as far away as Colorado from people requesting petitions, information, or just saying they support our efforts."

The petition campaign is growing. The group has collected about 500 petitions and have sent 110 more petitions to persons requesting them. Corlew's goal is to collect 5,000 signatures to send to Topps Company.

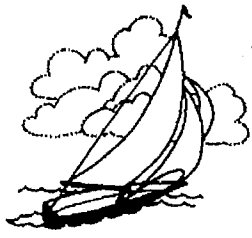

"We've been asked to speak with groups downstate and the head of the Michigan Coalition Against Pornography called and talked for about an hour. He asked us to send him a newsletter which he could distribute to the 30,000 members of his group."

"Of all the calls and letters I've received since this started, there's only been one nasty phone call. Everything else has been positive."

Grayling, Michigan—July 10, 1986

Whitey Madsen

From Our Corner...

It rained on Grayling during its Fourth of July celebration, like it did all over Michigan...

Despite the raindrops, the 4th celebration which is sponsored by the Grayling Booster Club each year did make it through the day long festivities...

The parade, postponed from 11:00 a.m. until 12:30 proved to be the right decision...once again the Grayling High School Viking Marching Band made the parade a success...so, another Tip of the Derby to our young musicians...Mother Nature held off just long enough to complete the parade, there were a few at the tail end who had to bring out their umbrellas, but, all in all considering the weather, the parade kicked off a day of celebration that ended with a truly climatic display of fireworks over Lake Margrethe...

Another kind of gloom hovered over Grayling over the big 4th of July weekend that brings a multitude of people to the north country...this weekend, with possibly the Grayling Milltown Festival is the weekend for northern Michigan and Grayling...

We do not know the reason yet, but someone or more must have decided this is a good time to close the Museum down for some technicality...that was just great!

Here is a community project, spear headed by the Grayling Rotary Club to restore the Michigan Central Railroad Depot as a Crawford County Historical Museum...

Through the efforts of Jack Alef, and the muscle from the Michigan National Guard personnel at M.A.T.E.S. a caboose was obtained and placed alongside of the depot...as an added attraction...

It has probably been over a year since this project was started...the repainting and renovation of the building was in part done by inmates at Camp Lehman...

The museum had its grand opening a little over a month ago...things were progressing beautiful under the direction of Bob Ruddy, curator of the museum...everyday something new was being added...this in time could be one of the show places for the lumbering era of Grayling's birth...

Whoever they were who had the power to close the museum, our question is, why did they wait until the Fourth of July weekend to play God...why did they not surface when the project was just getting underway?...

The museum is not a personal endeavor where someone is going to make a mint...it has been community all the way...something that the citizens now, and those who have lived here for a long time could look at with pride, the preservation of our yesteryears...

To end our pet peeve for this week, may I say, whoever was responsible, I hope they are real proud...with friends like these, Grayling does not need enemies...

Sydney Harris said it, not I...

"What is ultimately defeating for authorship was best expressed by Nietzsche: 'The most intelligible part of language is not the words, but the tone, force, modulation, tempo, in which a group of words are spoken — that is, the music behind the words, the emotion behind the music, the person behind that emotion: everything that cannot be written.'"

"Speaking of author's, I was pleased to read in the recent biography of Agatha Christie that the mystery writer herself considered her detective-hero, Hercule Poirot, to be 'an egocentric creep,' a judgement in which I heartily concur."

A few chuckles to finish out this turkey...

"It's not the men in my life that counts — it's the life in my men." Mae West.

"Before you find your handsome prince, you've got to kiss a lot of frogs." Murphy's Laws on Sex.

"There is nothing permanent except Change." —Heraclitus.

With that we bid T.J., Stefany and Amber good-night, and to all our readers have a nice weekend, Grayling's Milltown Festival is coming up next...and then there will be Labor Day...and the summer of '86 is finished...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Hillbilly Bible Thumper?

Am I a "Hillbilly Bible Thumper?" This article answers that anonymous charge.

Webster says a hillbilly is, "a Southern mountaineer or backwoodsman." Should one be ashamed of being called a Southern mountaineer or backwoodsman? We share a common humanity.

God created us all in His image. (Gen. 1:27). We share a common blood. (Acts 17:26). Our forefathers founded this great nation on the premise that all men are created equal. I am not ashamed of my relatives and friends from the red clay hills of southern Indiana. Neither am I ashamed of my friends from the sandy backwoods of northern Michigan. As the song goes, "I was country when country wasn't cool." God made the country and her people. God loves both of them, and so do I.

I am not ashamed of my old 1611 King James Bible. It is the greatest book in the English language. It led me to the author, my Lord Jesus Christ. It gave me assurance God has forgiven all my sins. It gives me directions how God wants me to live in this sinful world. Through it God gives me His salvation, wisdom, strength, guidance, peace, comfort, confidence, joy, and hope. While religions change, Jesus promised, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." All my hopes, dreams, and desires for all time and eternity are bound up in that one Holy book of God.

Webster says thump is, "a heavy blow; a blow that makes a dull sound." It was God who chose "the foolishness of preaching" to save people. (I Cor. 1:21). It was God who called the lowly to reach the proud. "For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence." Should God use what the world calls a foolish, base, weak, despised hillbilly to expose the vanity and sin of the noble, mighty, wisemen of this world, then to God be all the honor and glory!!

I am unashamed of my humble, God given roots, my Bible faith, and my call to preach. I am unashamed of those who consider me their pastor and friend. It is no shame to be called a "Hillbilly Bible Thumper."

Lovells, Michigan

June 20, 1986

Dear Mr. Madsen:

Yesterday morning, I was listening to radio station, WQON. Each morning, after giving news, sports and various other items of interest, they ask a few Trivia questions. One of these was: "Name the three Ghost towns in Michigan." The first call came from a lady who named Lovells as one of the towns. I just want everyone to know that we are alive and reasonably well out here.

Two of the ghost towns were Deward and Hardgrove; the third, I can't recall, neither can I recall seeing any ghosts in Lovells.

On the brighter side, you recently published the pictures of the 1986 Grayling High School graduates. They are a fine looking group of young people and we can be proud of them.

Now back to my original theme; the only time we have ghosts out here is on halloween.

Hazel Koernke,
Lovells, MI.

THANK YOU

Thanks to all of the professional people - doctors, nurses, paramedics, police officers, and all others involved - who helped to keep our Steve alive.

The emergency care he received at Grayling Mercy Hospital was the finest we could ask for. We were deeply moved by the way they cheered and rallied him to strength. They would not let him give up. We will be forever grateful for your efforts.

Arts Festival at Roscommon Sat., July 12

Get ready for fun on Saturday, July 12 in Roscommon at the sixth annual Roscommon Arts Festival. Over eighty artists and craftsmen will be joined by musicians and dancers to bring a day of events sure to please the whole family.

The day begins at 9:30 a.m. with the opening of two art fairs in Roscommon; one on the sidewalks of the Business District, the other in Wallace Park on the AuSable River.

The Non-Juried Art Fair will take place on the sidewalks of Lake Street from the Park to the heart of town. Over 50 artists and craftsmen will be selling their baskets, paintings, dolls, stained glass and wood items, quilting, and jewelry, to name a few.

Many other events will help round out the day's fun as well. The park Pavilion will be the center of entertainment throughout the day.

The Congregational Church Ice Cream Social will be held in their Fellowship Hall from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The Lions Club Chuckwagon will be set up near the park selling food and drink. Lemonade will be sold by the area Boy Scouts in front of the Male Box next to the fresh fruit wagon of the Bushel Basket. Zonta Club will sell giant cookies next to the Herald-News office. Obviously palates and senses will be satisfied.

An "Arts Festival Kickoff Concert" will be performed by the Roscommon County Choral the night before, Friday, July 11, at 8:15 in the Auditorium of Roscommon High School.

The Roscommon Business Association co-sponsors the event each year for the past six with the Roscommon Chamber Music Society - Arts Council. The Roscommon Arts Festival succeeds the Arts Council's earlier art fair formerly known as Art in the Park, which began 17 years ago this July.

New Lottery Game July 15

Lansing — It's the start of Michigan's birthday celebration and the lottery is joining in the festivities. Honoring Michigan's 150 years of statehood, the new instant game, "Michigan 150," goes on sale July 15.

"This is an exciting year for all Michiganders," said Lottery Commissioner Michael J. Carr. "It's the start of the Sesquicentennial and we kept that in mind when we developed 'Michigan 150.' In fact, our prize structure works around the theme '150.' For example, we have 150 $10,000 prizes and players can win $150 by collecting stubs to spell 'M-I-C-H-I-G-A-N.'"

Each ticket for the game contains six rub-off spots revealing the symbols TICKET, $2, $5, $10 and $10,000. Players who match three symbols win that prize. Tickets may be purchased at over 6,000 lottery retailers throughout the state.

"Michigan 150" also features a Grand Drawing with a top prize of $1,000-a-week-for-life, with a guaranteed minimum of $1 million. Runner-up prizes range from $11,000 to $25,000.

Players become eligible for the Grand Drawing by signing and redeeming "Free Tickets" for "Michigan 150" at any lottery retailer. Some five million "Free Tickets" in "Michigan 150" provide players with another ticket at no charge and a second chance for a cash prize, as well as automatic entry into the Grand Drawing selection process.

Net revenues from "Michigan 150" and all lottery games are earmarked for the state School Aid Fund. The lottery expects to contribute $430 million to the fund during the 1985-86 fiscal year.

Almanack

Bit of this, bit of that

by Richard Millman

Time once more for one of our infrequent strolls, barefoot among the potpourri...

WAY WITH WORDS — We all know that words, used in different ways, may mean different things. As the prophet said: Don't pay attention to what I say; pay attention to what I mean.

For example, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young the other day was bemoaning some aspects of the Reagan administration (which could have been just about any day, for that matter, considering how often Mr. Young means about Mr. Reagan).

Mayor Young pointed out that President Reagan is the first president since Richard Nixon who has not had an "urban policy" and who has not met regularly with Democratic mayors.

Wow! That sounds like quite an indictment of Mr. Reagan, and underlines his minimal regard for the problems of the cities, now doesn't it?

So try this: President Nixon had no "urban policy", and did not meet with Democratic mayors; however, presidents Ford and Carter did.

That says the same thing, of course, only in a much softer way — softer, that is, on Mr. Reagan.

It all depends on how you say it.

PROPER BUDGETING — What's the proper way to write a government budget?

Michigan Sen. Carl Levin has been suggesting that action on tax reform should be delayed until after the federal budget is adopted; in other words, Sen. Levin apparently thinks that congress should first decide how much money it intends to spend, and then go about raising it.

The Detroit News, for one, disagrees. A recent editorial took Sen. Levin to task for his approach.

"Out in the real world," The News reminded the senator, "most of us have to first figure how much we've got, then adjust our spending to fit our income."

In general principle about the way the private economy functions, The News is right, of course.

But as for government budgeting, Sen. Levin has the right idea, in my opinion.

Government is unlike "the real world" in many ways, and one is the way in which it gets income. The private citizen generally works for his/her income, while the government assesses the taxpayers for its income.

Government ought not to raise more money through taxes than it needs to spend; nor should government spend one dollar more than it needs to spend, but it should pay for what it does spend. If government sets the tax load first, the inevitable tendency is to spend everything there is, and then some. And that generally is what's been happening in government. Ideally, I think Sen. Levin is right. But that's not the way it's done in most governments.

SPARKY NEXT? — An item in a Detroit paper a while back listed five reasons for the decline of a particular baseball team:

1. Poor pitching. 2. Complacency. 3. Contract jealousies. 4. Burnout. 5. New manager.

Of course, the list was about the Toronto Blue Jays. But is sure fits the Tigers, too...all except the part about the new manager, of course. But that too just may come to pass.

NO CLEAR PICTURE — Early June primaries were expected to provide some indication of what voters will decide around the country this election year. But things weren't all that clear after the polls closed.

Reported the Gannett News Service: "The mixed results of primaries in South Dakota and California provide a clue to the 1986 primary season: there are no unifying themes, only individual races."

There now; all the mystery is gone. But that's usually how it happens in American elections.

ANOTHER EXAMPLE — A recent Almanack decrying the increase in litigation for questionable reasons cited several examples.

However, it looks like your correspondent closed the book just a bit too early for that column on our litigious society. A few days later another case appeared which would have been included had it been filed a bit earlier.

In Detroit a woman weighing nearly 400 pounds filed a suit charging the ambulance crew sent to take her to a doctor's office joked that she would give them backaches — and then dropped her.

Claiming the ambulance company was negligent in its employee training, the woman says the experience was so shattering and frightening that she has been under psychiatric care since. But she has joined Weight Watchers, too.

That's the sort of thing I was writing about when I questioned the use of our judicial system to settle complaints.

But questionable court cases are like streetcars; if you miss one, don't fret...another will be along soon.

CLOSING QUOTE — For our column-closing quote this time, let's borrow from Detroit Free Press columnist Bob Talbert:

"The biggest cause of much of the world's problems is that stupid people are so sure of things and intelligent people are so full of doubts."

GOING TO WASHINGTON — Four Crawford County Youth, sponsored by the Grayling Youth Booster Club, will be attending 4-H Citizenship Washington Focus in Washington, D.C. July 5-12. Washington Focus is a citizenship education program for youth 15-19 years of age. While visiting the Nation's Capital, youth will gain new perspective on international relations, developing leadership, and citizenship skills. Also supporting this 4-H experience is Weyerhaeuser and DeVere Construction Company of Alpena. These 4 youth have been collecting town and state souvenirs. Businesses supporting this effort includes: Seven Star Incorporated, Lincoln Park, Manufacture of Sesquicentennial souvenir items: Pepsi Distributor, West Branch; Mercy Hospital; Mac's Drugs; Cornell Real Estate; Grayling State Bank; Wurtsmith Community Federal Credit Union; Grayling Holiday Inn; Michigan National Guard; Michigan State Police; D.N.R.; Chamber of Commerce; Carlisle Canoe; WQON; and Crawford County Library. Herbal Corner

We are still discussing soap and I will bring you up to the present. Darlin', I do not know what I would do if I could not see to read for I should die if I could not learn. Again, I will be quoting pretty much from the book, Soap.

Out West, the B.J. Johnson Company was making a soap entirely of vegetable oils—palm and olive (also cocoa butter). The soap was popular enough for them to rename their company after it. Palmolive. Today's Palmolive Soap is not the same as the original.

In Kansas, the Peet Brothers pooled their combined capital to make 500 dollars and started their own factory, which was to become a great business institution of the West.

Lever Brothers, an English firm, sent over some of their staff to get things started in the U.S., and came out with Lifebuoy in 1895. Lifebuoy was sold as an antiseptic soap at first, and did not do well until they changed its name to Lifebuoy Health Soap, got rid of the carbolic odor that made it smell so antiseptic, and invented B.O.

The Peet Brothers merged with Palmolive to become the Palmolive-Peet and in 1928 joined the Colgate Company to create the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company. In 1953 Peet was dropped from the title, leaving us with Colgate-Palmolive.

The soap companies became very strong competitively after Ivory became known for being 99 44/100% pure. Magazines were the biggest vehicles for ads until radio eventually claimed the role. Women listened to daytime serials, or operas, and since they were the ones who did the laundry, nearly all the ads for soap were used during these operas, hence our soap operas.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.

Lovells Home Extension

The Lovells Home Extension met on Wednesday, June 11th at the Lovells Township Hall. Present were 17 members and 1 guest, Home Economist, Gale Edwards.

We didn't want it to rain on our picnic, but it did so we ate in the town hall. At least there were no ants present.

President Mildred Johnson opened the meeting. Roll call was to tell what you have learned about MAEH while wrapping a string around your finger, when the string was wound up you had to stop talking. This might be a good idea for shortening politicians' speeches.

Election of officers was held as follows: President - Margie Harwood; Vice President - Kitty Pellegrini; Secretary - Hazel Koernke; Treasurer - Joyce Mullin; International - Ruth Caid; Cultural Arts - Carol Ralph.

Those who attended College Week full time: Cora Davis, Cheryl Hopp, Mildred Johnson, Kitty Pellegrini. Part time: Viola Bigford, Hazel Koernke, Sophie Koernke, Velda Marshall.

Plans were finalized for the Trash and Treasure sale on July 5th. The proceeds to go toward scholarships for High school graduates of our community.

Home Economist, Gale Edwards gave a talk on MAEH; it's past, present, and future goals and explained the MAEH symbol. Their motto: "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

A Silent Auction was held and the proceeds were given to the 50th Anniversary fund of MAEH.

The Mystery Package was won by Vickie Davio.

Helpers on June Bingo for Timberview Village residents were: Vi Bigford, Margaret Cavanaugh, Vickie Davio, Hazel Koernke, Dottie Schatte.

Our next meeting will be Sept. 10th, so "mow that lawn, make strawberry jam and relax a little too. It's good for you."

Drug Therapy & Administration

This is an age of wonder drugs and medications, many can be easily purchased over the counter. New drugs of all kinds are continuously being manufactured which promise relief from the myriad of ailments afflicting man. Having reached old age during these years of pharmaceutical improvements some elderly have come to believe that the right pill or tablet can alleviate all of their physical ills. They are in fact, looking for a panacea. It is hard for many to understand that drugs can only make living cells do what they are already capable of doing—nothing more. Aged tissues cannot be rejuvenated.

The aging factor increases health needs and decreases recuperative resources. The older generation is particularly susceptible to the glib, all-encompassing promises of advertisers. They frequently spend their meager funds on these advertised "miracle drugs" and receive little value in return. Attitudes toward the taking of drugs reach extremes. Some elderly people are adverse to taking drugs of any kind and indeed, may stubbornly refuse to do so.

Opposite are those who live by the philosophy "If one is good, two are better." This latter group tends to over-medicate themselves. Their medicine cabinets are full of prescription and patent drugs, some of which may be kept after their effectiveness is lost. These people hoard pills and tablets, while those in the former group spit out their medications if possible. It is a fact, however, that as a person ages, failing body systems do need the support, stimulation and correction that drugs can offer. It is a further fact that the elderly spend more money on medicine and health services than other age groups do.

John Dare To Celebrate 104th Birthday Saturday

John Dare

Residents at Grayling Mercy Hospital's Mercy Manor will be wishing John Dare a very "Happy 104th Birthday!" on Saturday, July 12, when a party is held from 2 to 4 p.m. John is Mercy Manor's oldest resident, and for the second year in a row, he was crowned King during the Senior Prom held in May.

Six generations from John's family will be on hand for the party, and all are welcome to attend the party and wish him well. The following interview was conducted with John recently, reflecting his life over the past 104 years.

"Time just slid by me and before I knew it, I was 103. I've had a happy life.

"I was born July 17, 1882, in New Lisbon, Indiana where I grew up with my mother, dad, and brother, Oakley. We lived on a farm then. I remember once when Oakley and I captured a big hoot owl. We took him home and put him in a pen. Then we would shoot rats out by the corn crib to feed him. That old hoot owl would swallow them whole! Then mother's chickens started to disappear. Well, I guess you can figure out that the hoot owl had to go!

"I also had a pet lamb on the farm. The lamb would play with us like a dog.

"We were on that farm for about 10 years, then we moved to town. Dad took a job on the railroad. I was really glad I didn't have to walk the two miles to school anymore — just two blocks. I didn't take too kindly to walking two miles in the winter.

"I can still remember earning my first dollar. When I was twelve I cleaned out my aunt's water closet. I bought candy with some and saved some.

"After graduating from the eighth grade I worked at the general store in town until I was about 13 years old. I can still recall potatoes for 15 cents a bushel and milk for five cents a quart. I got a real job at the Indiana Buggy Company when I was 17.

"In 1902, I went on a two-week fishing trip on the west side of Rifle Lake with a friend. I was about 20 years old, and I fell in love with Michigan. I went back home to pack up my belongings, then returned to Michigan and bought a 40 acre farm. It was the best way to make a living at the time. I believe paradise was there.

"In 1915, I met Gertrude Wolf, we fell in love and were married. God, how I loved that woman. My wedding day was the happiest day of my life. My wife wore a white dress and I had a suit.

"We had four sons — Donald, Edmund, Louis, and Perry. We worked the farm about two years. We just couldn't make a living so I did odd jobs in our community. I loved it.

"In 1934, I got a job at Ford Motor Company making the Model A. They had just closed out the Model T. I drove back and forth with a friend, while the family stayed in Lupton. I quit Ford about 1942, and went back to the odd jobs I loved so much. I retired at 70 but was still raking leaves and shoveling snow at 90.

"I've been asked how I think I've lived to be 103 years old. First of all, you have to be happy. That's the most important. Second is good home-grown food. Love of nature, working in it, playing in it, and a little blackberry brandy never hurt either!"

Attends Seminar

Doodles From The Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

As you walk the trail going to the Virgin Pines, it is evident at this time of year that one of the prominent plants is the bracken fern. They conceal the earth over large areas of the north land in waves of green reaching to your waist. The ferns seem determined to dominate our forests, but this domination is now nothing to what it was.

There was a time when all of the earth belonged to the relatives of today's ferns. Three hundred million years ago, ferns were pretty much like those we see growing all over, but among them grew other ferns which reached the conformation of good-sized trees. Only the smaller ferns survived all of the climate changes that have taken place.

Most plants have their reproductive parts where they are obvious. The plant structure is designed to support a flower which is responsible for the reproduction. This is not the case in the ferns, where the reproductive part of a fern is a little thing about the size of a small collar button. There isn't any common name for it because you rarely even see it and fewer even know about what some call a fern-flower.

The ferns are just as mysterious today as they once were because they seem to have no flowers, seeds, or fruits; yet their numbers seem not to diminish.

Ohio Guard Firefighters Join Michigan Guard in Training

CAMP GRAYLING, MICHIGAN (7 July 86) — Sergeant Steve Deitrich, a member of the 5694th Engineer Detachment (Firefighting), Ohio Army National Guard, applies a stream of water to cool the roof of abandoned Camp Grayling building being used for firefighting training. Assisting Deitrich is Sgt. Don Bruce. (Ohio Army National Guard Photo by Sp4 Tom Grandy).

real well inside," said Sgt. Vinton Workman, team chief on this run. "There was a lot of smoke coming out. We used a fog pattern spraying water inside to get it cooled down, then we could go inside."

The procedures used to fight the fire make up several of the tasks the men are required to complete successfully to become certified firefighters. Sergeant First Class Daniel Michalak, Company Fire Prevention Inspector, cautioned the men not to expect to see a "text book" structure fire.

"Every fire has its own particular situations," said Michalak. "We have to guard against developing tunnel vision, where a firefighter fails to look out for unexpected dangers."

Some procedural mistakes are tolerated by Michalak, as long as the men learn from them. The men work deliberately and concentrate on safety at all moments.

"You don't rush anywhere around here," said Michalak. "You won't last long doing that."

As well as training and fighting real fires on post, the 5694th assists the City of Grayling firefighters with blazes off post.

"Last year there was a cottage fire by the lake and we were able to respond and assist the city fire department," said Michalak.

The 5694th, commanded by 1st Lt. Theodore Spillman, is located in Shreve, Ohio. The unit consists of 41 members, including a motorpool, cooks and a STARC unit. Several of the members, including Workman are volunteer firefighters in their communities.

Camp Grayling, Mich. (A.T. '86) - As part of their Annual Training, the 5694th Engineer Detachment (Firefighting) of the Ohio Army National Guard, responded to a fire deliberately set by members of the Michigan National Guard's firefighters in an abandoned building on post.

Upon arrival at the scene, the firefighters were greeted by a realistic and menacing structure fire. There was thick black smoke billowing out of the broken windows of the old brick building and smoke and flames escaping through cracks near the roof.

As our summer season is rapidly slipping away very fast and if you have not taken the time to visit the trout ponds at the former Grayling Fish Hatchery, we suggest you do not put it off too long. So far this year since we opened in May our traffic has been very good. It is by the help from our traveling public and our local citizenry through their contributions and purchase of fish food that we are able to make it possible for everyone to enjoy some of nature's creatures.

It would be well to bear in mind that a few people and a lot of hard work have made it possible for this program to continue. A program that once was a part of this north country based on the far sightedness of a few interested individuals in the early part of this century.

It is possible in a few short years in the future this program could become history as our world and the changing of the times moves so rapidly, and what was and is today would be lost to the coming generations.

It is gratifying to those of us connected with the activities of the summer at the trout ponds to watch the people of all ages as they move about at the ponds and enjoy seeing the trout and marvel at how some of the fish are so large. Many people who have not visited a zoo or large aquarium have never seen fish the size that are in the ponds, some up to fifteen and sixteen pounds.

In a very few short years from now all of us will witness the vanishing from this area an operation that was like an institution dating from a period just after World War One. Millions of trout were distributed into the streams and lakes of this northern area from the Grayling Fish Hatchery during those many years.

That program was discontinued in the late sixties. About five years ago a few local people interested in putting a portion of the original program in operation as a tourist attraction with the thought in mind it would bring some extra revenue into the area. The program was started and has been very successful the last four years. We will be looking forward to seeing you.

Cleaning Supplies Make or Buy?

Call Edwards
Ext. Home Ec.

Literally hundreds of different brands and types of cleaning supplies are available in the average supermarket. Trying to choose can make you wonder whether it would be simpler and cheaper to make your own cleaning supplies.

There are some household cleaning jobs that can be tackled with inexpensive, common materials if you know what materials work best on what kind of soils.

For example, alkalis

remove soil and grease and rinse away with clear water. A mild solution of water and baking soda - a mild alkali - can be used to clean appliances, metal sinks, fiberglass tubs and other surfaces. Because it's mild and non-abrasive, it won't damage these surfaces either.

Ammonia, a stronger alkali, can be dissolved in water and used to clean painted surfaces, greasy film on windows or other glass, or grease on range burners and ovens. Laundry detergents, which are also alkaline, can be used for similar cleaning tasks. These products are all relatively inexpensive and can be made into different strength cleaning solutions for specific tasks when needed.

Inexpensive mild acids, such as vinegar, can be used to remove soap film and mineral deposits left by hard water. In a water solution, they can be used to clean window glass. When heated, they can dissolve lime from teakettles and pans.

Chlorine bleach makes an excellent disinfectant and mildew remover and can also remove many stains, if used carefully.

These "home" cleaners may require more time and energy to mix and use than the quick, commercially produced cleaners, but they cost less to use.

Families need to weigh one scarce resource against another. That is, time against money. Which does your family have more of? Is it practical for you to mix your own cleaners, or too costly to buy specialized products?

Perhaps you can compromise. Stir up a baking soda or ammonia solution for everyday cleaning, but buy furniture wax because it would be too time-consuming, costly and hazardous to make at home.

SPORTS FANS!

I Bet You Didn't Know

Brought To You By Brad Scheer

One of the most incredible baseball records of all-time was set by Shoeless Joe Jackson who had season batting averages in the major leagues of .387, .408, .395, .373, .354 and .382 - AND NEVER WON A BATTING TITLE! ... Jackson compiled those averages in the American League starting in 1910, but every season when he had such high averages, someone else had a better one... It seems unbelievable that a player who hit that well should not have won at least one batting championship - but Joe Jackson never did!

Here's a surprising fact... Did you know that when a good tennis player serves, the ball travels more than 100 miles per hour! ... And, recent tests showed that some serves by great players measure up to 150 miles per hour!

Amazingly, a big league baseball pitcher once won EVERY game his team won over a complete season! ... Pitcher W. White of Cincinnati won 42 games in 1879... Cincinnati won only 43 games that year - so White won 'em all! ... There's a record that will probably never be broken.

I bet you didn't know... General Motors is still offering a full size 9 passenger Station Wagon. These cars still have V 8 engines and haven't forget the family. Please stop and see one at Scheer Motors.

Barnie and Treva Engel

For the past 11 years it has been a labor of love serving the senior citizens of Crawford County in various capacities by Barnie and Treva Engel working in the Retired Senior Volunteer Program under the auspices of the Commission on Aging.

Thus, it is no surprise that Barnie and Treva were honored at the recent 13th Annual Dinner held in Grayling at the Holiday Inn to represent the RSVP as their King and Queen in all upcoming functions for the balance of 1986 and into 1987.

Barnie Engel, highly regarded as a raconteur, knows how to entertain an audience as the 6-footer, 190-pounder, still with the physique of an athlete, and ever ready with a pleasant smile, has had many years of preparation for his new role through his previous career as an employee of the Department of Natural Resources where he spent 46 years, the last 25 as superintendent of the fish hatchery in Grayling. At one time the scope of his services covered eight northern Michigan counties.

In 1983 he was named Senior Citizen of Crawford County for his outstanding contributions to the community of Grayling. He was a courier, driving the elderly to keep appointments at the hospital or doctors offices. He also did the driving when individuals otherwise unable to drive, needed to shop in local stores. At times he became involved aiding young people solve personal problems.

Barnie, since retiring, has enlarged a latent interest in wood working and he now has a professional skill honed to create objects from wood salable to the public. He recently completed 32 wood whirlies as well as a walking penguin and many other items of general interest.

While Barnie has earned his share of the limelight, Treva, his wife of 49 years has also done her share to make this a working team. Treva, a jovial and charming five-foot 2, with eyes so blue, has had her sphere of activities. She has served in numerous women's circles of the Michelson Memorial United Methodist church of Grayling since the couple became members of the congregation many years ago. Treva has been a member of the Ladies Aid (United Methodist Women) for 40 years. In earlier years Treva was a Sunday School teacher for more than one decade.

Treva's community service covers 35 years in the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary. In 1983 the organization made her an Honorary member. In spite of the honor, Treva continues to serve the auxiliary and is currently active in the Hospital Library. She has contributed to Bake sales, Bazaars, Rummage sales, and also helped out in Garage sales.

Among Senior activities she contributes with participation in the Kitchen Band and the popular Song Birds. She also is an aide in the Health Care Center as well as being a regular patient visitor at Mercy Manor. Barnie Engel also served a number of terms as a member of the Board of Trustees.

The Engels are parents of two children, daughter Mary Ann is 43 and mother of two. Son John Engel is 40 and the father of two, brightening the lives of the elder Engels.

Barnie Engel summed up the philosophy of the happily married couple, stating, "Don't take life too seriously as you can't get out of it alive!"

How TO SAVE $47,614 ON YOUR NEW MORTGAGE.

INTRODUCING THE BIWEEKLY MORTGAGE.

It's true. That's how much you can save on a typical $50,000 Great Lakes fixed-rate, 30-year mortgage. Here's how it works:

Instead of making monthly mortgage payments in the traditional way, you'll make half-payments every other week. At the end of the year, you'll have repaid the equivalent of 13 traditional mortgage payments.

Over the life of your loan, the more frequent, smaller payments and the one extra payment can cut your interest expense by 25%. And you'll find your 30-year loan repaid in full after just 20 years.

Ask your Realtor or Great Lakes Federal mortgage lender about the new Biweekly Mortgage. Great Lakes Federal Savings can help you get the home you want for less.

Amount Borrowed		Interest Rate	APR	Payment Amount	Repayment Period	Total Repaid	Savings
$50,000	Monthly Mortgage	11.00%	11.43%	$476.17	30 years	$171,421
	Biweekly Mortgage	11.00%	11.37%	$238.09	20 years	$123,806	$47,614
$75,000	Monthly Mortgage	11.00%	11.41%	$714.25	30 years	$257,130
	Biweekly Mortgage	11.00%	11.35%	$357.13	20 years	$185,709	$71,422
$100,000	Monthly Mortgage	11.00%	11.40%	$952.33	30 years	$342,838
	Biweekly Mortgage	11.00%	11.34%	$476.17	20 years	$247,608	$95,230

NOTE: These examples are based on a 20% down payment. Different loan amounts and interest rates will still result in significant, though different, savings. The Biweekly Mortgage is offered in conjunction with a Great Lakes Federal Automatic Payment checking account.

Foster Grandparents Honored At AuSable Day Care Center

Crawford AuSable Day Care honored four very special Foster Grandmas on June 13, 1986. These grandparents are currently involved in the Day Care Center's program. The Day Care Center is licensed for eight infants (2 weeks 2½ years) and twenty-nine children (2½-9 years old). We have been very fortunate to participate in the Foster Grandparent Program for the last 5 years.

Marie Reeves has been at the Day Care Center for 4 years and has touched the lives of many young children. She began working with two to three pre-schoolers who had special needs. Marie is a child's best friend, she helps them color, paint, share ideas, go for walks around the yard and cuddle as needed. Marie is now working in our infant/toddler program.

Edna Anteau has been at the Day Care Center for 2 years. Edna works with our toddlers and infants in the morning program. Edna is a very special person who is always available to meet the emotional needs of the very young children. She also works with a selected group of youngsters who need some special time with a special person.

Lillian Brabender has also been at the Day Care Center for 2 years. The toddlers often argue over grandma's lap. Lillian is kept very busy in the afternoons, rocking, reading, singing and cuddling.

Our newest grandma is Fern Conklin. Fern works at the Day Care Center during the summer months. Fern is kept very busy with the toddlers in the afternoon program.

Mary Lowery is another very special person in the lives of the children at the Day Care Center. Although she is not involved as a Foster Grandparent, she has volunteered time and services for the last six years. Each child knows that Grandma Mary comes to see "just them."

Our center and community children are very lucky to have such wonderful, loving people involved in their lives. We hope the Foster Grandparent program continues to offer this service and our center continues to consume their love.

Mercy Hospital Auxilliary Picnic

The Mercy Hospital Auxiliary will hold their regular July meeting and picnic on July 10th., at the home of Doris Payne on Connors Road. The meeting will start at 12:00 noon. Auxiliaries and guests are asked to bring their own place setting and a dish to pass. There will be a short business meeting held after the picnic lunch.

This is an enjoyable social afternoon, and guests are welcome and encouraged.

Frederic High School Alumni Banquet June 28

The Frederic High School Alumni Association held their annual banquet on Saturday, June 28th at the K. of C. Hall with 72 people enjoying a delicious swiss steak dinner.

Before the buffet dinner, Vic Parsons, pinch-hitting for President Fred Allen, welcomed everyone and thanked them for attending, then introduced Elsie Burke Larson, Class of 1927, who gave a short introductory talk before leading us in prayer.

A cake, made by Edna Kitchen, honored the Class of 1936, celebrating their 50th anniversary. Only one member, Nelson Vollmer, was able to attend. The decorations for the head table and cake table were bouquets of silk Lilacs - the class flower, with blue and gold ribbons - the class colors. Nelson Vollmer and his wife, Orale Burke Vollmer, cut and served the cake.

After the meal, Vic Parsons brought the group to order for a short business meeting.

A moment of silence was observed in honor of Clyde (Spike) Lozon, a member of the class of 1937. Clyde passed away on June 9, 1986.

A "speedy recovery" card was circulated and signed by all present for Guy Kellogg of Battle Creek, recovering from recent surgery.

The treasurer's report was given by Secretary-Treasurer, Bessie Feldhauser, followed by a report by Helma Post, Library Memorial Chairperson.

Prizes were awarded to the oldest class member present - Leota Welch Harrod, class of 1925. To the youngest class member, Yvonne Weaver Pratt, class of 1961, and the member traveling the farthest distance - Diane Madill Thomas of Arizona. Garbage Pail Kids

Corlew says there's a new set of Garbage Pail Kids cards out — the fourth set — that are terrible. "These are the worst yet. Anything else was child's play compared to these."

Corlew said some people who oppose the cards have run into opposition but many store owners are agreeing the cards are not items that should be sold to children.

"One distributor couldn't sell any of the cards to stores on his route," said Corlew.

"There must be a lot of people out there who aren't buying them. If there weren't a lot of people out there who think the same way I would be talking to myself in my living room instead of talking on radio and television shows."

Although Corlew is quick to point out all the help her family and group members have given her, she started most of the campaign and reporters have wanted to talk to her.

"I think I learned a lesson from all this," said Corlew. "We always think one person can't make a difference so we shrug our shoulders and go on."

Corlew has shown one person can make a difference.

Strolling Around Town

By Fay

Someone called my attention to the Manor, the two-story apartments in the housing complex, which has a lot of primroses, sweet Williams and many other perennial flowers well cared-for. A big bouquet to the lady who cares enough to plant and care for them so that she and others might enjoy a spot of beauty.

Another area observed today started with Adams Photography where a coat of paint on the former "Jarmen" house brightens up that corner along with flowers planted along the walk. On Chestnut Street the Hindmarsh home, former "Dad Hanson" house has received some renovations on the front porch and steps in blue and white, the Funch home, Milltown Violetry, has flowers and a beautiful hanging bleeding-heart, while the two houses next to it have well-kept yards and some flowers.

The Kent Reynolds home, has bright yellow flowers and over on Maple the Kumpulas have their front planter full of flowers as do the Ockermans up a couple of blocks.

Keep those calls coming - 348-7017 - who else has fixed up their homes?

Crawford AuSable To Receive More State Aid

Senator Connie Binsfeld (R-Maple City) announced last week that out-of-formula school systems in her 16-county, senate district would receive an additional one-half million dollars in categorical aid next year as a result of her initiative to eliminate recapture from the state's K-12 budget. Crawford AuSable will receive $17,765. more in state aid.

Following the Senate's approval of the nearly $2 billion K-12 budget July 2, Binsfeld said, "today we scored a major victory in our efforts to eliminate state recapture of categorical aid to out-of-formula schools in the state. The budget we passed today includes a five-year phase-out of recapture that will put $24 million annually back into our out-of-formula schools by 1990.

Recapture of categorical aid was started in 1980-81 to provide a more equitable funding of schools when state deficits reached in excess of $5 billion.

Binsfeld explained, the state School Aid Fund gives money to school districts in general as well as for particular special programs, such as special education, compensatory education and transportation. However, if a school district has a high property value, state law classifies them as out-of-formula districts and reclaims a certain amount of their school aid dollars, assuming the community can contribute revenues through local taxes. Out-of-formula districts are also ineligible for general funds.

According to Binsfeld, the phase out of recapture would be achieved by 1990-91.

Binsfeld said at the end of the fifth year, $1.5 million would be returned to the budgets of out-of-formula schools in her district. "These dollars are critical to our northern schools with their high transportation costs and other categorical expenses," she said.

Stand In The Gap

God told Ezekiel: "I sought for a man... who should build up the wall and stand in the gap before me and for the land... but I found none." (Ezekiel 22:30)

And God still looks for people who will "stand in the gap" and build up the wall on which He can build His kingdom. He looks for good people, people of vision, those who will not sell their souls for a mess of pottage, nor sacrifice their birthrights on the altar of expediency in the marketplace.

Pompey, Roman general and statesman, put it: "It is a small matter that I should move forward and die. It is too great a matter that I should take one step backward and live."

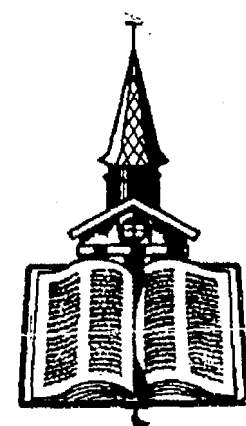

Following the bloody years of the Civil War, the name and character of Gen. Robert E. Lee never faltered nor wavered. This great general stood taller in defeat than most generals ever stood in victory.

One day a group of men approached him about heading a business enterprise of questionable nature. They offered him $50,000. "You will have to do nothing. All we want is the use of your name," they told him.

Gen. Lee stood tall behind his desk. "Sirs, my name is the heritage of my parents. It is all I have, and it is not for sale."

The gaps are all around us. People, men and women, go and stand!

Resource Review

by Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Anyone interested in a fall hunt for wild turkeys will soon have the opportunity. An application deadline of August 1, 1986 has been set for a hunt which will take place this October.

Approximately 200 licenses will be available for each of three hunting periods (October 15-19; 20-24 and 25-29). The location of the hunt will be in southwestern Dickinson County in the Upper Peninsula - Turkey Management Area "M".

A valid fall wild turkey hunting permit and either a 1986 Small Game or Sports-person's license will be required. Many of the hunting regulations are the same as for the spring turkey hunt. However, there are three important differences: 1) turkeys of either sex will be legal; 2) every bird taken must be checked within 72 hours of being killed and 3) a vest, jacket or cap of hunter's orange must be worn.

Resident permit applications are available from DNR license issuing offices (Roscommon, Mio, Clare, etc.) while non-residents must apply through the DNR Information Services office in Lansing. Applications must be postmarked by August 1, 1986. Application guides with all necessary information are available at DNR offices statewide.

Golden Angels To March in Milltown Parade

The "Golden Angels" Baton Club is from Roscommon and has been established now for seven years. This year the club includes members from Grayling. The group is active in community events and parades and also loves to travel for summer parades in other communities.

The Golden Angels participate in baton contests throughout the state in both solo and group competition. This summer the team is led by Christy Legg who holds the 1985 Jr. Flag Baton Twirling Championship Title for the World Twirling Association in Michigan.

The Golden Angels, under the direction of Adel Barron, will be appearing in the Grayling Milltown Festival Grand Parade on Saturday, July 26th.

Congratulations to Dr. Tricia Duley, who has received her M.D. and correct me if I'm wrong, but I think she is the first Grayling High woman graduate to have received such a degree. Tricia is a former student of mine and I am very pleased with her success.

John and Lois Foster of Walnut Creek, California, have returned home after spending a month with their daughter and family, Joseph and Kristina Newman, newcomers to Grayling. The Fosters came to help care for their granddaughter, Lisa, and the newest arrival, Julie.

Doug and Ruth Billsby, Kristy and Scott, of Fife Lake, visited his parents, Lyle and Ro Billsby the last weekend in June.

Tom and Thelma Bateman returned to Grayling from a month's vacation which took them to Wagner, Oklahoma, for Tom's family reunion. From there they went to Eureka Springs, Arkansas, to a Carving Rendezvous where Tom took part in a carving class along with 75 other fellows. They went then to Indianapolis to take in the National Convention of Western Square Dances.

Guests of the Batemans last week were their daughter, Mrs. Connie Hiscock, daughter, Amy, and friend, Diane, of Tilsenburgh and Sarnia, Ontario.

Dena Bovee and Bruce Goll of Worthington, Ohio, spent a long holiday weekend with her parents, Bob and Fay Bovee.

GPA Plans For Milltown Festival

Do you have your Milltown button? No, not yet? Then hurry down to your favorite Grayling business and you'll find one to buy. Why do I need a Milltown button? Why, to gain admittance to the beer tent that will be set up in part of Spike's Keg O'Nails parking lot during the Milltown Festival this month. What will I hear if I go to the beer tent? A great Dixieland band on Friday night, July 25!

The Grayling Promotional Association is sponsoring the button sale. The buttons have been distributed throughout Grayling business places, and the GPA urges you to get one so that you won't miss the fun at the beer tent. Members are also helping with the True Value Country Showdown which will take place at Patty's Place. The Showdown will give local talent an opportunity to vie for national recognition should they continue to win on the national level.

Another of the Milltown projects that the group is helping sponsor are the Sidewalk Sales that will take place during the Milltown week.

Grayling Volunteers Seek Record Winter Special Olympics Contribution

SPECIAL OLYMPICS DONATIONS — The Red Barn is raising money for the Winter Special Olympics by asking $10 donations for customers or businesses to place their name on a ceiling tile in the Red Barn.

Not many of us are thinking of skiing, snowmobiling, or sledding these hot days of July. Winter is a long way off and so are the Winter Special Olympics, but the Grayling Red Barn and its employees are already working to achieve a record Grayling contribution for the 1987 games.

For a $10 donation, the Red Barn will stencil your name or business on one of their ceiling tiles. For an additional donation, you can have the tile professionally painted by Elene Hamilton, of Grayling. More than $1,200 in donations have already been collected by the Red Barn and many of the tiles have been painted and are on display.

Craig Stewart donated his time in obtaining contributions of paint and supplies from Alma Painting Contractors, Van's Lumber Company, McLean's Promart, DuBois Lumber, and Al Rogers Painting Contractor. Red Barn employees and customers Jack Klinkert, Pete and Bonnie Welemirov, Tom Fish, Vickie Potter, Elene Hamilton, Dick Lapan, Moe Enos, and John Rozenek also volunteered time and effort toward the ceiling tile auction.

In addition to the ceiling tile project, the Red Barn on Sunday, July 20, in conjunction with the Kikker Band from Lansing, will sponsor a band Jamboree as a prelude to the Milltown Festival. Donations to Special Olympics will be accepted at the door. Bands interested in performing should call the Red Barn.

On Saturday, July 26, the Red Barn will host an auction of collectibles, arts and crafts, and other items of value with all proceeds going toward the Winter Special Olympics. The auction will start at about 2 p.m. in the Red Barn parking lot. In case of rain it will be moved inside.

Some of the members of the well-known Wertz Warriors plan to attend the auction. Members of the Grayling Moose Club are joining the staff of the Red Barn in asking the community to donate items of value such as small appliances, home furnishings, and arts and crafts such as ceramics, paintings, quilts, wood items, hand knitted or crocheted goods, stuffed animals and others. Any new items or services area businesses wish to donate will also be accepted.

Girls Take 'Right Step'

A program aimed at developing self-confidence, healthy habits and lifestyles for local girls, ages 12-15 and currently in grades 6-8, is being held at Mercy Hospital, Grayling throughout the summer.

Funding for the "Right Step" Program was awarded by a grant from the Emily George Fund for Human Needs, a foundation program of the Sisters of Mercy Health Corporation. The program has been very popular and a few openings are still available, according to Right Step counselor Ms. Kelly Fortino. The program is held every Tuesday morning throughout the summer months from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Mercy Hospital's Riverside Room.

Ms. Fortino is working on the project as a counselor to provide group direction and development. She is a licensed Social Worker and has been working with and counseling teens and their families for seven years.

"Several good programs are currently being operated in the community that are dealing with "after the fact consequences" of poor choices and decisions," said Ms. Fortino. "Right Step" aims to act in a preventive mode before significant problems occur.

"We hope to provide guidance and support to enable girls to make decisions that encourage school success, healthy peer and parental relationships and discourages early drug and alcohol use and sexual experimentation," Ms. Fortino continued.

Anyone wishing additional information about the project can call Ms. Fortino at Mercy Hospital on Tuesday afternoons at 348-5461, ext. 120.

Yale, Michigan, and Clancy Avery, of Mio, will be offering their professional auctioneer services and Red Barn staff and Moose Lodge members will also be volunteering their time. Bob Terry is donating storage space to hold items until the auction.

Contributions are deductible and receipts for market value will be issued to all donors. Call 348-8932 or 348-

A minimum of $40 is needed to sponsor just one child in the Winter Special Olympics. A lot of money must be raised for the thousands of children who participate. No matter how small your contribution may be, it will help provide these special children with a million dollars worth of self esteem, happiness, and an experience of a lifetime.

Letter to the Editor

The Fourth of July of all weekends has come and gone and our new Historical Museum was closed to local citizens and tourists.

I work at the Hotel and people were walking over there and cars driving in and out, to find it closed.

A son and his father and mother had lunch at the Hotel. They are restoring a Depot in Ann Arbor and they flew up here especially to get some ideas, took Dial-A-Ride downtown to find the museum closed, and this is supposed to be a thriving community for tourists, how sad.

It has been open for some time now, why was it closed over this Holiday commemorating Freedom & Liberty.

What a shame for all of those that put all their effort and long hours into getting this museum open. Was there a good reason or just politics? For whatever reason, it hurt our community.
